celebrating creative bravery

First things first. We're based in a little village called Burghfield Common. It's got a postoffice, a pet shop a grocers & a bakers. We're located above Davis Tate Estate Agents. When you see the red postbox that's our drive. Park around the back and knock on the side door.

If you have one of those fancy SatNav things type in the postcode RG7 3BL let us know how long you'll be and we'll pop the kettle on.

If at any point you get lost, the map should help. If you're still a little wayward then please pull over and get on the phone, we'll be only too happy to help.
